Partnership Notice

WAAPC – West African Academics Professional Center

The West African Academics Professional Center (WAAPC) is pleased to announce that it is open to all partnership proposals in the fields of education, humanitarian work, and business development.

WAAPC firmly believes that collaboration with individuals, institutions, or organizations that share our values is a powerful way to create positive impact in our communities. We would therefore be honored to work and collaborate with anyone who brings added value to these key areas.

We warmly invite any interested parties to contact us through the following email addresses:
